

The Acropolis Museum participates in the “Green Cultural Routes”

On Saturday 27 and on Sunday 28 May 2023, the Acropolis Museum participates in the pan-hellenic cultural action titled “Green Cultural Routes”, organized by the Ministry of Culture and Sports, with two extra gallery talks for its visitors “Walking in the ancient neighbourhood of the Acropolis Museum”.

Visitors will have the opportunity to walk through the archaeological excavation with the Museum’s archaeologists and take a magical stroll through time, history and the daily life of the people who lived by the shadow of the Acropolis’ rock for over 4.500 years.

Information:

Saturday 27/5: 11 a.m. in English and 1 p.m. in Greek

Sunday 28/5: 10:30 a.m. in English and 12:30 p.m. in Greek

Duration: 60 minutes

Participation: These extra gallery talks are offered free of charge and a free admission ticket is required from the Museum Ticket Desk (limited to 20 visitors per session). For your participation, please register online at events.theacropolismuseum.gr.
